

Eligibility Requirements

1. If you have qualified for Food Stamps, you are automatically eligible. You must show your card when you register.
2. If you have not applied or qualified for Food Stamps, you must meet the income guidelines shown below. We do not ask you to bring proof of income, but you must sign a statement certifying that the information you give is accurate.
3. All sources of income must be included--Social Security, pensions, and part-time or full-time work.
4. Re-registration is required every 6 months.
5. Each time you receive food, you must sign to show that you have received it.
6. You can have someone else pick up food for you, but they must have a signed note from you giving them permission.
